

Nature Nibble - April 27th, 2020–Birds

This week, the words in italics below are the Ojibwe names for these birds. Ojibwe is an original language in the place we live! Do you know anyone who speaks Ojibwe?

Do you see....

- A Canada Goose?
nika

- A Bald Eagle?
migizi

- A Mallard Duck?
zhiishiib

- A Ring Billed Gull?
gayaashk

Do you hear...

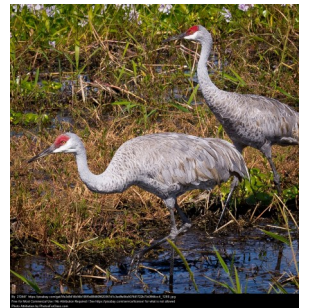

- A Canada Goose?
Nika

- An American Robin?
apichi

- A Sandhill Crane?
ajjaak

- An American Crow?
aandeg

Draw the shape of a bird you saw in the sky near where you live. Notice the shape of the wings, beak and tail. Sometimes these shapes can help you know what kind of bird you saw.

The shape of migizi.
What is the name of this bird in English?
